

Someone Else's Year

Can't imagine
Where I got so lost
Try to get back
Wagon doesn't wait for long
Now it feels like I'm falling again

What can I say?
The tides won't change
Waiting again
Won't be around someday
Watching you stray
Caught in the fray
It must be someone else's year

Soul is hollow
I'm drowning in my sorrows now
Why'd you stay up?
We'll never ever make up now

There's no where to hide
Release control of me now

Come in here next to me
Lay down on top of me
I can see everything
